

M. Wednesday Hall, D.O.

Dr. Wednesday Hall is a board certified PM&R physician specializing in interventional pain management.

Dr. Wednesday Hall D.O. is board-certified in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation as well as Interventional Pain Management. She grew up in California and moved to Florida to earn her Master's Degree in Biomedical Science. She then attended the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine, where she obtained her medical degree. Following medical school, she completed her residency in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at the University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio. To further specialize her expertise, Dr. Hall pursued advanced fellowship training in Interventional Pain Management. She moved to Michigan to practice and is excited to provide compassionate, patient-centered care to the community.

With extensive experience in conservative treatments such as physical therapy and medication management, as well as procedure-based approaches, Dr. Hall offers comprehensive care tailored to her patients' needs. Her areas of focus include managing neck and back pain, joint pain, muscle sprain/strain, peripheral neuropathy, complex regional pain syndrome (CRPS), sciatica/radiculopathy, facet osteoarthritis, degenerative disc disease, disc herniations, and compression fractures. She is highly skilled in performing epidural steroid injections, nerve blocks, joint injections, trigger point injections, rhizotomy/ablation, kyphoplasty, and spinal cord stimulation.

When she is not in the clinic, Dr. Hall enjoys spending time with her husband and extended family in Michigan. She is an avid reader, enjoys golf, and loves to travel, embracing opportunities to explore new cultures and experiences.
